DUTIES:

The position involves responsibility for determining eligibility for driver's licenses and vehicle registration through a review of the applications and a variety of supporting documents. Employees in this class are also responsible for the receipt of approved application and registration documents and their processing by computerized methods. The duties also involve the collection of fees for registration or licensing. In addition, employees in this class are expected to be prepared to meet the public once the office is open and continue to service them until the office is officially closed by the appropriate supervisor. The work is performed under general supervision with supervisory employees deciding questions of an unusual nature. Does related work as required.

Subjects of examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Cashiering Principles and Practices

These questions are designed to test for an understanding of such things as proper cashiering practices; terminology; and cashiering issues pertaining to currency, checks and other negotiable instruments.

Name and number checking

These questions test for the ability to distinguish between sets of words, letters, and/or numbers that are almost exactly alike. Material is usually presented in two or three columns, and you will have to determine how the entry in the first column compares with the entry in the second column and possibly the third. You will be instructed to mark your answers according to a designated code provided in the directions.

Customer service

These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact with other people, to gather and present information, and to provide assistance, advice and effective customer service in a courteous and professional manner. Questions will cover such topics as understanding and responding to people with diverse needs, perspectives, personalities, and levels of familiarity with agency operations, as well as acting in a way that both serves the public and reflects well on your agency.

Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

Test guide:

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.

Religious Observers – Disabled Persons: If special arrangements for testing are required, please indicate this on your application form.

VETERANS OR DISABLED VETERANS desiring to claim additional credit may make application for such additional credit on their application for examination or at any time between the date of the application and the date of the establishment of the resulting eligible list. Veterans' credit is added only to the score of the exam when the passing grade of 70 or higher is attained by the candidate.

ADDITIONAL EXAMINATION CREDIT TO CHILDREN OF FIREFIGHTERS AND POLICE OFFICERS KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY - In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

CALCULATORS ARE RECOMMENDED Candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone or smart watch.

This written exam is being prepared and rated by the NYS Dept. of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the NYS Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of exams will apply to this examination.
